

‘Science and other Myths Poetry Evening’
with Peter White & Jane Kite
Wednesday 21st February 7.30 p.m.

HEART Centre, Bennett Road, Headingley, LS6 3HN

This evening Peter White & Jane Kite will be our hosts on the theme of ‘Science and other Myths’. Peter R White and Jane Kite are co-directors (along with Mark Connors) of Otley based publishers, Half Moon Books.

In a former life as a design engineer, Peter used to write precise specifications and contract documents. Since retiring he gained a BA in Literature with the OU, and was reborn as a writer of ambiguities and downright lies in the name of art. His poems have won prizes and have appeared in eight anthologies to date, and in his pamphlet, Ways to Wander (OWF Press, 2105). Jane would like to have been a mathematician and maths does get into her poems sometimes, but in heavy disguise. Her first collection, Distaff, the story of an imagined family over several generations is available from Half Moon Books. Jane and Peter will be reading poems on the theme of Science and other Myths, and hope to hear more of the same in the second half open mic.

Entrance £3.50/£3.00 members & concessions.
