 Leeds inspired

A six week programme of Dance Workshops on 1940's and Swing Dance. Swing Dance is a group of dances that developed with the swing style of jazz music in the 1920's-1940's, though the origins of each dance predate the popular swing era. Historically the term 'Swing' referred to the style of jazz music, which inspired the evolution of the dance. Traditionally these dances are danced with a partner but it is becoming more popular to find classes that teach swing steps and styles without the need of a partner which is the aim of these workshops.

The Dance Tutor for this programme is Emma Sutton of Emma Lucy Dance. Emma is a Singer and Dancer and has toured in both Dubai and the UK, she currently sings with a duo 'Folley' and runs Dance workshops in the community mainly Headingley & Meanwood.

The workshops will culminate in a final workshop on Saturday 16th June followed by a performance with a live band as part of the Headingley Music Festival – The Nicki Allan Quartet.

Nicki Allan is an award winning Jazz vocalist, Pianist, Session musician and educator. She is the lead vocalist with the Manhattan Sound Big Band. A solo Jazz Piano Vocalist and works regularly at the Harrogate Brasserie, a Recording Artist and session Singer and Voice Coach, workshop and choir leader, Musical Director and Organist and has toured around the world. Nicki has always been an ambassador for young talent and encourages others to believe in themselves in pursuit of their own personal musical journey.

(Nicki Allan)

All are welcome to come along to both the workshop and the Dance event on the final evening 16th June. Those who prefer will also be welcome to sit and watch. Please come in trainers or flat dance shoes.
