

'Short Seasonal Walk with Poetry'
(On the Theme of Winter)
From Waitrose Meanwood, to Millennium Square, Leeds.

Sunday 17th December 11.30 a.m.

Meet outside Waitrose, Meanwood for this 4 mile linear with Richard a Leeds City Tour Guide for a walk along the ridge through the ginnels to Woodhouse Moor Park, The University Precinct, Hanover Square then along a short stretch of the canal and continuing to BRIGGATE and Millennium square. Any poetry readings can be on 'The ups and downs of winter'. There is then option to walk back with Richard or catch a bus home. Please bring a packed lunch. We will finish with optional refreshments either at the Christmas Market, or in Cuthbert Broderick.

www.leedscombinedarts.org.uk

